

Ludia Natunga voted player of the year 2012

Last Updated Monday, 14 January 2013

Ludia Natunga, a player of Mbale Tigers Table Tennis Club voted Uganda Table Tennis player of the year 2012. She is the second nominee after Nekesa Rita who was voted also Ugandas Table Tennis player of the year 2007. In its 10 year development project, Developing Youth through Sports, the two Girls have also excelled academically with Rita Nekesa at University pursuing a BSc in IT at KIU while Natunga just sat her O level (UCE) at Manafwa High School both of them have benefited from scholarships from their Primary school to where they are. Rita Nekesa scooped national titles and represented players in Sweden at a cultural exchange program while Ludia has also scooped several titles including winning a Bronze medal from the Africa youth Games in Morocco. She won this Bronze with Mabuka Anold another Firery player. Watch this space.